

ANNEXURE 2 PRESCRIBED CONDUCT RULES

Prescribed in terms of section 10(2)(b) of the Sectional Titles Schemes Management Act, 2011 (Act No. 8 of 2011).

1) Keeping of animals, reptiles, and birds

- (1) The owner or occupier of a section must not, without the directors' written consent, which must not be unreasonably withheld, keep an animal, reptile, or bird in a section or on the common property.
- (2) An owner or occupier suffering from a disability and who reasonably requires a guide, hearing or assistance dog must be considered to have the directors' consent to keep that animal in a section and to accompany it on the common property.
- (3) The directors may provide for any reasonable condition regarding the keeping of an animal, reptile, or bird in a section or on the common property.
- (4) The directors may withdraw any consent if the owner or occupier of a section breaches any condition imposed in terms of sub-rule (3).

2) Refuse and waste disposal

- (1) The owner or occupier of a section must not leave refuse or other materials on the common property in a way or place likely to interfere with the enjoyment of the common property by another owner or occupier.
- (2) Unless the Homeowners Association provides some other way to dispose of refuse, the owner or occupier of a section must keep a receptacle for refuse of a type specified by the directors in a clean and dry condition and adequately covered in the section, or on a part of the common property designated by the directors for the purpose.
- (3) The owner or occupier of a section must —
 - (a) move the refuse receptacle referred to in sub-rule (2) to places designated by the directors for collection purposes at the times designated by the directors and promptly retrieve it from these places; and
 - (b) ensure that the owner or occupier does not, in disposing of refuse, adversely affect the health, hygiene or comfort of the owners or occupiers of other sections.

3) Vehicles

- (1) The owner or occupier of a section must not, except in a case of emergency, without the written consent of the directors, park a vehicle, allow a vehicle to stand or permit a visitor to park or stand a vehicle on any part of the common property other than a parking bay allocated to that section or a parking bay allocated for visitors' parking.
- (2) A consent under sub-rule (1) must state the period for which it is given.

4) Damage to common property

- (1) The owner or occupier of a section must not, without the directors' written consent, mark, paint, drive nails, screws, or other objects into, or otherwise damage or deface a structure that forms part of the common property.
- (2) An owner or occupier of a section must be considered to have the directors' consent to install a locking or safety device to protect the section against intruders, or a screen to prevent entry of animals or insects, if the device or screen is soundly built and is consistent with a design, colour, style and materials approved in writing by the directors.
- (3) The owner or occupier of a section must keep a device installed under sub-rule (2) in good order and repair.

5) Appearance of section and exclusive use area

- (1) The owner or occupier of a section must not, without the directors' written consent, make a change to the external appearance of the section or any exclusive use area allocated to it unless the change is minor and does not detract from the appearance of the section or the common property.
- (2) The owner or occupier of a section must not, without the directors' written consent—
 - (a) erect washing lines on the common property;
 - (b) hang washing, laundry or other items in a section or any exclusive use area allocated to it if the articles are visible from another section or the common property, or from outside the scheme; or
 - (c) display a sign, notice, billboard, or advertisement if the article is visible from another section or the common property, or from outside the scheme.

6) Storage of flammable materials

- (1) Subject to sub-rule (2), the owner or occupier of a section must not, without the directors' written consent, store a flammable substance in a section or on the common property unless the substance is used or intended for use for domestic purposes.
- (2) This rule does not apply to the storage of fuel or gas in —
 - (a) the fuel tank of a vehicle, boat, generator, or engine; or
 - (b) a fuel tank or gas cylinder kept for domestic purposes.

7) Behaviour of occupiers and visitors in sections and on common property

- (1) The owner or occupier of a section must not create noise likely to interfere with the peaceful enjoyment of another section or another person's peaceful enjoyment of the common property.
- (2) The owner or occupier of a section must not obstruct the lawful use of the common property by any other person.
- (3) The owner or occupier of a section must take reasonable steps to ensure that the owner or occupier's visitors do not behave in a way likely to interfere with the peaceful enjoyment of another section or another person's peaceful enjoyment of the common property.
- (4) The owner or occupier of a section is obliged to comply with these conduct rules, notwithstanding any provision to the contrary contained in any lease or any other grant of rights of occupancy.

8) Eradication of pests

- (1) The owner of a section must keep the section free of wood-destroying insects, including white ants and borer beetles.
- (2) The owner or occupier of a section must allow the directors, the managing agent, or their duly authorised representatives to enter the section on reasonable notice to inspect it and take any action reasonably necessary to eradicate any such pests and replace damaged woodwork and other materials.
- (3) The Homeowners Association must recover the costs of the inspection and replacement referred to in sub-rule (2) from the owner of the section.
